

Dragutin Ranogajec is president of the Croatian Chamber of Trades and Crafts in the term 2011-2015. He has been a tradesman since 1989, when he founded his family retail and accounting business.

His active involvement in the activities of trades and crafts' associations started in 1990 with the involvement at local level in Tradesmen Association Krapina. Till 2004 he carried out different duties in the bodies of the Chamber of Trades and Crafts of Krapinsko-Zagorska County, including the presidential duty.

From 2004 to 2011 he was actively involved in the work of the Croatian Chamber of Trades and Crafts as a member of the Steering Committee, then President of the Board for Economy, the Board for European Integrations and Vice-President of the Board for Finances.

In January 2011 he was elected President of the Croatian Chamber of Trades and Crafts for the term 2011-2015. He actively participates in the work of the Committee on the Economy of the Croatian National Parliament.

In April 2015 he was reelected President of the Croatian Chamber of Trades and Crafts for the term 2014-2018.

He is a member of Rotary Club Krapina, where he has performed presidential duty and a member of the Executive Committee of the Society for Kajkavian Cultural Heritage Krapina.